

Notes to Editors

The National Association of Round Tables of Great Britain and Ireland most commonly known as "Round Table" was founded in 1927 in Norwich and is an organisation for young men aged between 18-45.

Round Table has Clubs in almost every town and city in Britain.

Round Table is a family orientated organisation which holds social and community service events on a local, regional and national level.

Members of Round Table raise around £6 million each year mainly for local groups, individuals and charities.

Round Table is not a Charity but an Association made up of almost 800 individual Round Table Clubs covering Great Britain and Ireland who take part in thousands of local events every year to help their communities.

Round Table is part of a world wide organisation of like minded young men that has 35,000 members.

Round Table has its headquarters at Marchesi House, 4 Embassy Drive, Edgbaston, Birmingham B15 1TP Tel: 0121 456 4402; hq@roundtable.org.uk; www.roundtable.org.uk
